

PS 29 2024 Summer Reading Challenge

Any PS 29 reader who logs 30 hours of summer reading will:

- be invited to our in-school pizza party in the fall!
- receive a Certificate of Achievement along with a small prize!
- will be mentioned in a group shout-out in the school paper!

For the second year in a row, we've organized reading totals into "Author Clubs". If having a target number of hours to aim for keeps readers motivated - here you go! This year, we're celebrating another group of 6 incredible BIPOC authors, and we hope everyone will explore their fabulous books.

Parents - please read:

- Please drop your reading form off in the main office by Friday 9/27. The box where you drop the forms will be clearly marked & impossible to miss!
- Please do not give the forms to classroom teachers, they have enough to manage!
- Please make sure your student's name is legible, and that their classroom teacher is listed - we want to make sure they know about the pizza party and that they get their prize, etc.
- If you need more space to record what you read, please feel free to use any paper you'd like.
- Though by no means necessary, if you'd like to donate to the PTA in honor of your super reader, you can do so on our school website (look for the Summer Reading Challenge link) Your generous donations help support our literacy activities!

"Author Clubs" ...

- If you log 30 hours of summer reading, you're in club Helena Ku Rhee
- If you log 31 - 50 hours of summer reading, you're in club Carole Lindstrom
- If you log 51 - 75 hours of summer reading, you're in club Brenda Woods
- If you log 76 - 100 hours of summer reading, you're in club Kekla Magoon
- If you log 101 -150 hours of summer reading, you're in club Pablo Cartaya
- If you log 151+ hours of summer reading, you're in club Celia Pérez

Interested in knowing more about these authors and their books? Check out the PS 29 website, we've linked to their books and to some great summer reading lists!

(You do NOT have to read books by these authors to be in the "author club", it's just a fun way
